MR. CLEVELAND TO THE POLICE. He Talks Entertainingly at Their Annual Dinner In New York.

The annual New York police dinner took pince Monday evening at Delmonico's, Ex-President Cleveland, responding to the toast, "Our Country," remarked facedy that the frequency with which h alled upon to respond to that toas t suggest that either his own patriot was called upon to respond to that toast might suggest that either his own patriotism or that of the banqueters was weak but that such was not the case, at least with himself. Sometimes he had thought, when recalling the many times he had actually and literally stood up in defence of our country amid gastronomic dangers most appalling, and when on every side indigestion filled the air, that the propriety of his having a persion might properly be considered. Mr. Cleveland, assuming a more serious vein, recalled to the police authorities and officers, under whose auspices the banquet was given, that nearly twenty years ago he had served as sheriff of Erie country, and later as mayor and police commissioner of Buffalo. The speaker continued:

served as sheriff of Erie county, and later as mayor and police commissioner of Buffalo. The speaker continued:

"It may seem strange to those who know me as a mild and amiable man to learn that in the latter capacity my object duty was to administer rebuke and censure to such members of our police force as were convicted of violations of the rules of the department. Of course I claim the benefit of the presumption that this distasteful and uncongenial duty was well and thoroughly performed. So far as my shrieralty is concerned I may say by way of magnifying my claim for recognition here that I not only held the office and performed its duties, but that I have since suffered more or less abuse on account of it. Not many years ago, during a national political campaign, a female orator was employed to go about the country imploring the electors of the land to withhold their suffrages from the 'Buffalo hangman.' You must agree with me that this was quite dreafful. It makes me almost shudder to think that perhaps this female's efforts may have had much to do with a disastrous result. But, after all, there is a grain of comfort in the reflection that this thing was done in the heat of political contest, and by one avowedly in the employ of political adversaries. There was also, I believe, some uncomplimentary reference to the office of sheriff or deputy-sheriff in the newspapers. This, of course, is sadenough.

"But even such wounds may be healed; and then, too, we must remember that something should be conceded to that inestimable boon—the freedom of the press, of which our country boasts. But though my term of office as sheriff expired so long ago that I might plead the statute of limitations, I desire to stand by ex-sheriff Grant, with ex-Sheriff Sickles, and with Sheriff Gorman in defence of one of the oldest offices known to civilization, and one which if faithfully administered cannot full to reflect credit and honor upon its incumbent. When we see a graduate from the office of sheriff twice elected to the chief magistracy of this, the largest and best city in the United States, and see it demonstrated that an ex-sheriff is not debarred from the attainment of even higher honors, we can afford to ridicule all efforts to belittle the shrievalty and laugh at every attempt to rob us of the satisfaction we derive from the consciousness of an honest performance of its important duties.

A PECULIAR CASE.

A CHARGE OF ROBBERY NOT SUSTAIN-ED BY THE EVIDENCE.

A Witness Who Was Remarkably Absent Minded-Marriages in Prospect-Snatching a Watch.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] Peterseure, Va., January 29 .- Thomas Gillick was arraigned in the Mayor's Court this morning on a warrant charging him with taking $10 from the person of George Snavely. The case was a rather peculiar one in many respects. In fact, it was not discovered until all the evidence had been concluded, and then only by aceident, that Mr. Shavely's Christian name is not George, but M. S. Snavely. Counsel for the accused while examining the coat from which the money was said to have been taken, found in one of the pockets a letter addressed to "Herbert Snavely," who, the complainant explained, was a friend of his, and that the letter was written by a lady. It was then that Mr. Snavely gave his right name. A CURIOUS STORY.

A CURIOUS STORY.

The complainant said that he was a telegraph-operator; that he had been in the employment of the Chesapeake and Ohio company at Staunton; that he was paid $40 a month for his services; that he was paid up in full by the company on the 17th of December and left his place; that he arrived here on Friday afternoon last, took a good many drinks by himself, and in company with Mr. Gillick, by whom at a late hour of the night be was taken to a room in a boarding-house on Bollingbrook street and put to bed, and that after that he remembered nothing more. His clothes were very wet, and he supposed that he must have walked in the river some time during the evening. About 10:30 o'clock on that night after he had been put to bed he surprised the inmates of a saloon near by by rushing in only partly dressed and apparently very wild and disordered in brain, in which condition he was taken in charge by an oldeer. For several days afterwards he was kept under medical treatment at the jail, having no acquaintances or friends in the city.

INADEQUATE.

INADEQUATE. The only evidence against the accused was the fact that he was in company and drinking with Snavely during the evening and put him to bed. This was deemed in-adequate, and Gilliek was discharged. Snavely says his home is at Atkins, in Smyth county near Marion.

William Thomas (colored) was convicted this morning of the larceny of a watch, the property of Mr. Myer Eichburg, and sent to jail for sixty days.

Ngw York, January 22.—The stock market to-day was very dull outside of a few leaders, and while its course was turned upon shorts the apward movements were principally the result racter. Early advances amounted to as much as per cent., but the decline which followed wiped out all this improvement, except in spe cially strong atocks, which were the subjects of manipulation. Grangers during the entire day wore singgish to weak, but with the exception of Burlington never gave way to any extent. Dul-ness and stagnation ruled the market from the first hour until the last, when all the activity displayed during the day was shown.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

SWARD ADVANCES. Villards were advanced sharply, especially the Northern Pacific preferred and Missouri Pacific, and sugar receipts were close followers. The first named scored an extreme gain of 1½ per cent, most of which was retained at the close. The movement, however, was not sustained until the close, which was duil and steady, generally at insignificant changes from the opening figures.

THE FIRST DIVIDEND.

The dividend on Nickel-Plate first preferred, the first in the history of the road, stimulated the trading in the slocks of the company, and the first preferred sold at 70, against 639 last evening, others while strong showing only small fuctualities. The market was devoid of any other feature except that there was no sale of Reading, which has not occurred in months. The final changes are generally slight gains, and Northern Facilite 132 related, 160,000; unlisted, 7,000 shares.

Revenue collections were also large and show that business is beginning to boom. Loose sales were very large, and while prices essed off some it was merely because of very high order of tobacco, in which it came in on the wet spell.

The break altogether was of a very destrable, clean tobacco and the best we have had in very many years, and now is the time for our buyers to stand by our market, while they as well as the planners are gesting full value received. The best of the crop is now coming in. Friday's (to-morrow'e) break will be the largest by far that we have had this season, and it is to be that we have had this season, and it is to be hoped that all buyers will be out in rull force and that much money will be put into circulation. Housain this market, encourage the planters who spend their money at home, and be
